The trial of the parties connected with the Hicks outrage will commence before Justices Whitaker and Wicker to-day at 12 o'clock.

Our friends along the line of railroads by getting up a sufficient number can secure excursion trains at greatly reduced rates of fare, for the grand Greeley and Brown demonstration next Friday night.

Suppose the unfortunate old gentleman, Mr. Hicks, that was Kukluxed by the negroes Saturday night, had been a negro and the assassins white men—what a howl there would have been in the Radical camp.

The Raleigh District Conference of Methodist Episcopal Church, met at Louisburg on Thursday last, and after a harmonious session of three days, adjourned. The NEWS had a special reporter on hand, whose full report of proceedings will appear in to-morrow's issue.

Several of our exchanges give glowing descriptions of the Aurora Borealis, which they say appeared last Thursday night. Foote, of the Warrenton Gazette, saw it between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock in the morning, and said many pretty things about old Boreas.

We ask all the boys what they were doing out at this peculiarly unseasonable hour, Foote especially.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Monday, August 12th, 1872, before His Honor, WESLEY WHITAKER, Mayor.

Giles Bledsoe, for drawing a knife on Henry Biggs and creating a disturbance on Wilmington Street, was bound over in the sum of $300 for his personal appearance at the next term of Wake Superior Court.

Owing to the absence of important witnesses in the Hicks outrage, the investigation is postponed till 12 o'clock to-day.

Several street fights on Wilmington Street were reported, in which the participants paid the usual fines and were released.

A DIABOLICAL OUTRAGE!

A Quiet and Peaceable Citizen Knocked Down and Beaten by a Mob of Negroes.

HIS STORE ROBBED BY THE FIENDS.

THREE OF THE PARTIES ARRESTED!

The Investigation To-day.

Saturday night last Mr. Wm. Hicks, a quiet, peaceable and offending citizen, aged about 65 years, living about four miles from the city, was knocked down in his store room, and as thought by the ruffians choked to death. The store was then robbed and plundered of about $100 worth of goods, when the robbers becoming alarmed, ran off.

The NEWS reporter visited the store yesterday morning and learned the following facts connected with the tragic circumstance.

At about 11 o'clock Mr. Hicks was called from his residence, which is near the store, by a customer at the store; opening the door and lighting a lamp he discovered five colored men, none of whom he recognised though he did not take particular notice of the party, as on Saturday nights especially he generally sold goods till 12 o'clock. The spokesman of the party asked for two pounds of bacon. While in the act of cutting it he was struck with a heavy stick which felled him to the floor; the rest of the party then seized and as they thought choked him to death. The store was then robbed of a lot of calico, domestics, shoes, &c., but as they had an opportunity of carrying a much larger quantity off it is supposed they were frightened from their work.

Mr. Hicks was removed by his wife to a bed in the back room of the store, where he was soon restored to consciousness. Dr. James McKee was summoned to dress the wounds which he says is of a very dangerous character.

We saw him yesterday at 11 o'clock, but found him too delirious to engage in conversation. Mrs. Hicks informed us that she heard the blow from the house and knew that her husband was being murdered, but was afraid to venture to his assistance. The floor of the store room where the struggle took place is covered with blood, showing that the villians were satisfied they had killed their victim.

Mr. Hicks, a son of the unfortunate man, came to the city yesterday morning to procure a warrant for the arrest of the suspected parties, but as the Mayor was at church, the warrant was not issued till late in the evening, when he went in person with the Chief of Police to the spot.

After diligent search and enquiry the following negroes were arrested as parties to the crime: Tom Griffice, Bryant Jones and Simpson Mordecai. The police are on the track of others and it is believed all will be caught. The evidence against the parties arrested is said to be plain and conclusive.

The investigation takes place to-day at the Mayor's office before Justice Whitaker and Wicker at 12 o'clock.

ESCAPE OF PRISONERS AT THE PENITENTIARY.—Sunday evening seven of the prisoners confined in the Penitenitary escaped therefrom by scaling the walls of the stockade. A guard is stationed upon the stockade and are required to be on the same at all hours of theday and night, and the fact of these persons escaping in open day light certainly reflects upon the efficiency of the guard; in other words, it shows evidently a criminal neglect of duty on the part of the guard or some one else. The names of the prisoners that escaped are as follows:

Eli Dampier, white, Wake county.
DeMarcus, white, Cabarrus "
Lawhorn, white, Johnson "
Eudy, white, ——.
Duty, white, Orange county.
Burke, white, Mecklenburg.
Samuel Brown, colored.

These prisoners were the cooks and bakers of the penitentiary, as all others are required to be kept in the cells on Sunday, and doubtless the guard were careless from this fact, but still it is no excuse, when they were on regular duty.

The fugitives were heard from eleven miles below Raleigh at sundown Sunday evening enquiring the route to Zoe Lamay's in Johnson county. It is natural to suppose they premeditated a raid upon his stable, as he is known to be a gentleman of considerable wealth in that county.

CONCERT AND ENTERTAINMENT.—On Friday night, the 16th, there will be a concert and entertainment at Ridgeway for the benefit of the Methodist Church. Besides songs from several young ladies of Ridgeway and vicinity, there will be music on the piano, guitar, violin and cornet in various combinations. Several amusing scenes from life will be acted, and one or two passages of select reading will be given by a lady of acknowledged ability.

Mr. Dodsworth of Dodsworth's band, of New York, has kindly consented to assist, and by his rare skill will add greatly to the attractions of the occasion.

It is believed that the concert will be a great success and that those who attend, whether commending the object or merely desiring entertainment, will not be disappointed.

Concert in the hotel.

THE STATE FAIR.—October the 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th are the days fixed upon for the coming State fair. We are pleased to know that the premium list this year is more comprehensive than formerly, and the premiums larger. We have every reason to hope and believe that the entries made this year will be much larger than last; that the people of the State will attach more importance to the fair, and all will lend a helping hand to render it a crowning success.

THE CALDWELL MAJORITY.

Something Approximating the Positive Result.

The public could not have been more confused by the various election returns which have been received and sent out from Raleigh since the 1st inst., than we have been, as the innumerable changes which have been made for the second, third, fourth, fifth and even a larger number of times, rendered it impossible for the best calculator to make anything like a safe estimate, and hence the contradictory and apparently wild dispatches which were sent from here. And but in few instances have the votes of the counties for the Legislature and county offices reached us, except as to the names of the members elect.

We have now in our election table the official returns (not obtained from the Secretary of State's office, however, and may yet be changed,) of 80 counties, which foot up the following result:

Caldwell,	91,454
Merrimon,	88,153
Caldwell's maj. in 80 counties,	3,301

In the remaining thirteen counties the semi-official reported majorities have given Merrimon a nett majority of 1,723, leaving Caldwell a majority of 1,584. The county of Graham is not included in this estimate, but its democratic majority will have to be deducted from this. These figures will approximate the result, although it is possible they may be changed by the official returns to the Secretary of State.

It will be seen that the vote of 80 counties exceeds by 1,350 votes the whole vote of 1871, and by 6,444 that of 1870. The remaining counties have a voting population of nearly 20,000, so it may be safely said that the vote this year will reach 20,000 more than that of 1871, and 25,000 more than of 1870.

THE GRAND DEMONSTRATION.—From the extensive preparations now in progress the demonstration on Friday evening next promises to be one of the grandest affairs ever known in the city of Raleigh. It is to be hoped that clubs will be immediately formed in every town and village on Railroads and even a convenient distance off, within a hundred miles of Raleigh, and participate with us on the occasion.

It is reasonably expected that every store and private dwelling on the line of march in the city will be illuminated.

Every man old and young in the city of Raleigh, and those from the country that can get here, are expected to join in the procession.

Our friends from the country and many from town are expected to join in the mounted procession, of which Capt. Thos. Jenkins will be chief in command.

The resident candidates of our late successful State ticket will be visited on the line of march at their residences, where short addresses will be expected. Visiting guests will be serenaded at the Hotels.

At a meeting of the Committee of Arrangements yesterday morning, the following marshals were appointed for the occasion:

CHIEF MARSHAL—Maj. Basil C. Manly.

ASSISTANTS—Thos. P. Devereux, Maj. R. M. Petty, Lony Stephenson, J. T. Harriss, Matthew Moore, Dr. C. F. Dowd, B. B. Betts, P. F. Pescud, Jr., Jno. Pescud, J. Green, A. B. Stronach, Frank Stronach, Sam'l G. Cross, col., Simon B. Cravom, col., and Albert Williams, col.

COL. W. P. WOOD.—The Era man seems to be very much troubled by this gentleman who was sent here by the National Liberal Republican Committee to address our people.

We hope he may come again before November, for he truly has done a "good work," and converted many from the evils of Radicalism.

He went to Rutherford, Polk and Henderson counties in company with Gen. Clingman, and these gentlemen by their telling speeches succeeded in reducing the Radical majorities almost to mere nothings. Col. Wood is an upright man, and the Era knows its slanderous reports to be entirely without foundation.

ATTENTION.—A meeting of the Committee of Arrangements for the proposed demonstration on Friday evening next, is called to meet at the Law Office of Thos. P. Devereux this evening at 5 o'clock, P. M. A prompt and full attendance is earnestly desired.

Mr. Stillman, Agent of "The Howe Sewing Machine":

We have had your Machine in use in our family for four months, and can safely recommend it to the public for its simplicity, beauty as a piece of furniture, and as a "help" to those of us with large families, it is a "blue qua noon." We have made with it, in addition to the usual household work, over one hundred garments, large and small, including Pants, Coats, Dresses, &c., some of which were heavily trimmed, two of the dresses containing from 100 to 125 yards of tucking. It is worked with much ease, requiring but little exertion. We would not be without one for three times its cost. Yours &c.,

The Evidence of Administration in North Carolina—Specific Proof of Frauds—Illegal Voting in Several Counties—an Investigation to be Had—the Tribune Looking After these Frauds.

The New York Tribune of Saturday contains a telegram from Weldon, under date of Friday night, concerning the frauds recently perpetrated in that section. The intelligent correspondent of the Tribune, Mr. White, has been in Halifax for several days looking up these frauds, and we have no doubt he will unearth them. Says he:

Evidences of fraudulent voting and irregularities in the manner of holding the election of this State are coming in from all directions. No formal investigation has yet been made in this (Halifax) county, but enough is known to warrant the assertion that at least 250 illegal votes were cast in three precincts, Weldon, Littleton, and Scotland Neck. Were there no other evidence of fraud, a comparison of the vote of this county with the census table would be sufficient. According to the cencus returns of 1870 the voting population of Halifax county was 4,445. The same year, within a month of the time when the census was taken, 4,577 votes were cast in the county, or 122 more than the voting population. The Democrats knew that they had been cheated at least 400 or 500 votes, but they had carried the State, and so there was no need of an investigation, and the people were so completely broken spirited by the oppression of the Administration State Government, that it is doubtful if they would have made an effort to ferret out the frauds, even had there been any inducement to do so.

In 1871 the vote in this county was still further increased, so that it then exceeded the voting population in 1870 by 685. The Democratic vote increased between 1870 and 1871 209, and the Republican 454. At the election just held the vote exceeded the population in 1870 by 852. The Administrationists polled 410 more votes than in 1870, and the Conservatives 320.

If such a state of things as this should occur in a community rapidly increasing in wealth and population it would not be at all strange, but the fact is, that if the population from which the Grant men got their entire vote in this county, the negroes, has changed at all, it has decreased rather than increased. This is owing to a decrease in the amount of land cultivated in the county since 1870, and to the removal of hundreds of blacks from the county to the Turpentine Woods of South Carolina, and to other counties in this State, and to work on railroads building in various parts of the South. No data are now at hand to show the number of these removals, but gentlemen who reside here belive that they would amount to at least 1,000 of the voting population.—On the other hand, the increase in the Conservative vote is easily explained.—For the first time since the war did the Conservatives of the county poll anywhere near their vote. The young men of the county sent out carriages in every direction on the day before the election and brought in to the voting precincts numbers of men who have not for years felt an interest in politics. There has also been a natural increase by young men becoming of age, &c., and also the accession of about 40 negroes. But it is unnecessary to pursue the subject any further, for the direct evidence of fraud is at hand and will soon be made known in its full particulars.

Weldon is within ten miles of the line, and it was not at all difficult for colored men to come here, register and return on election days. Another source was found in the men from other counties who are working on a bridge near this place, as well as those who are working upon a new railroad. An attempt was made to get in the votes of all these men, but after some of them had voted it was discovered and the remainder were successfully challenged. The registration in Littleton precinct was irregularly conducted. The law requires the registration books to be open all of the time for a month before election. The registrar in this place, a negro, was absent many days, and when voters went to his house he refused to enter their names, saying that they must come another day. Numerous witnesses are ready to make affidavit to this fact. These are only a few of the evidences of fraud in this county. Others will be brought out on investigation.

I met a gentleman at Charlotte who told me an instance of irregularity in Berry Hill precinct, Mecklenburg county. The Registrar, Ray, was the Grant candidate for sheriff, and his wife kept the registration books open all of the election day, and all who registered then were allowed to vote. In Wake county the election went on five or six hours at one precinct without reference to the registration books. During that time about 400 negroes voted The County Commissioners refused to take notice of the fact, and notice of contest has been given.

I don't think that the conjecture that the returns in the West were held back in order to hear from the East a correct one. The county officers in all of these Western counties are Conservatives, and many have no object in delaying the returns. The heavy falling off of the Conservative vote in Surry, Yadkin and Stokes, is fully explained by the threats of prosecution made by Administration agents for violation of the Internal Revenue and Kuklux laws.

SUNDAY NIGHT DISPATCHES.

Speech of Ex-President Johnson.

KNOXVILLE, August, 11.

Ex-President Johnson spoke by invitation last evening to a good crowd for two hours and a quarter. He was introduced by Judge T. A. R Nelson, who introduced him as the people's man, plain "Andy Johnson." Mr. Johnson said he was no candidate for any office. He said it was well in times of popular upheaval to take our bearings and see whither we are drifting. Recurring to first principles, he showed at length how the government has been drifting from its Constitutional moorings, and has become the plaything of an irresponsible Congress, at the dictation of a usurping Executive. He reviewed Grant's Administration with severity, but with moderation.

He discussed the official gift-taking as bribery, citing the case of Sir John Trever in England. He favored one term and the election of the President by a direct vote of the people. The re election of Grant would be a great national disaster. He accepted Greeley on the principle of the universal pressure. Circumstances beyond human control have limited the choice to two men. Patriots cannot hesitate to choose Greeley. It is no time to say this or that is or is not my party, but let us all unite in saying this is my country. The country must have reconciliation, restoration of civil rights to all citizens, confidence between sections, and a reform of the service. He pleaded for a return of the ancient reverence for the Constitution. His speech was well received and generally applauded.

Geneva Board of Arbitration.

GENENA, August 12.

Mr. Cohen, the English Barrister, who drew up the report for the Crown on the subject of American claims for losses sustained by mercantile marines of United States, has been summoned here from London. This gives rise to a conjecture that decision has been rendered by the Board upon the general question, and England's responsibility for direct loss claimed by America, and that Cohen is called in to assist the British counsel in arguing upon amount of damages to be assessed by the Board. One of many of the reports current here concerning the proceedings of the Board and present position of the Arbitration is that after the cases of the two governments were presented, the counsel on either side went into a lengthy discussion regarding England's responsibility. The argument turning mainly on the question whether the British authorities had exercised due diligence to prevent the Confederate cruisers from escaping out of her ports, and whether any such responsibility as the American claims followed upon the permission of said cruisers to take coal at British stations. Sir Roundell Palmer opened the discussion on these points, and spoke at great length in of the position taken in the British case. Messrs. Waite, Evats and Cushing replied, the latter closing the argument on behalf of the United States. In his summing up, Cushing strongly urged the point, that the same diligence upon the part of the British authorities, which afterwards served to detain the Confederate rams would have been equally effectual in preventing the escape of the cruisers had it been exercised with reference to them.

Washington Affairs.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 12.

Sumner has gone Northward.

A planet is declared out of the meteoric belt by astronomers at the Government observatory. No more displays need be expected until the 12th of November.

Orders have been issued from the War Department prescribing regulations for continuing the work of the freedmen's bureau, under the direction of the Adjutant General of the army.

In pursuance of the act of Congress, abolishing that bureau, a chief disbursing office will be established in the Adjutant General's office at Washington, D. C., with disbursing offices at Louisville, St. Louis, Nashville, Memphis, Vicksburg, Natchez and New Orleans. Payments to claimants in Delaware, Maryland and Virginia will be made at the Washington office. In North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, and States wherein slavery did not exist, by officers who will be temporarily assigned to that duty officers herein before enumerated.

The order prescribes at some length the duties and powers of attorneys in collecting the claims, and states that advances or loans by attorneys will not be recognized.

Detective Whitley, who is under the instructions of the Attorney General, visited the alleged Ku Klux prisoners at Albany, and has made an elaborate report. The Attorney General will confer with the President on the subject as soon as the latter returns to Washington.

Seventh District—F. B. McDowell, of Iredell.

Eighth District—Thomas D. Johnston, of Buncombe.

IRREVERENCE.

"THERE MAY BE SOME DEMOCRATS PRESENT WHO ARE REPENTANT AND I LIKE TO PREACH TO SINNERS. YOU HAVE HEARD OF THE FELLOW WHO SAID, 'I CAME NOT TO CALL THE RIGHTEOUS, BUT SINNERS, TO REPENTANCE.'"—Delano in his speech at Raleigh.

INCONSISTENT.

The public can well remember when Hon's. Charles Sumner and N. P. Banks, and other distinguished men in the Republican party were the recipients of the most unbounded praise at the hands of the Republican press of the country, when their speeches were complimented as being the very essence of statesmanship and of the true principles of constitutional liberty, when Republicans fawned upon them and never allowed an opportunity pass without showing them their efforts were appreciated.

Now, these same speeches, which were commended then, are unearthed, they, as a matter of cause do not mean what they did then; once loyalty was the leading feature advocated, now, disloyalty blackens every utterance in them.

Mr. Sumner is denounced in unmeasured terms by his former political supporters; no epithet is considered too low to be applied to him; his motives are misconstrued, and the pure man of a short time ago is now the base, corrupt, unreliable politician.

Such conduct on the part of the Radical press of the United States is prompted by fear of the consequences of the steps takes by these gentlemen. In this movement they see the handwriting which will doom Grant to his fall.

Mr. Sumner is acting from pure motives. The Radical party had too plainly marked its course, distrust, as to its honesty, at first, and afterwards a firm conviction as to its corrupt purpose, convinced him that it would finally end in the destruction of the Government, and he severed his connection with it.

The fact of old members of the organization declaring their determination to support the Reform movement is strong proof of the dangerous tendency of the Republican party. They have been acting with it from the beginning, know its objects; they were once heart and soul with it in everything, and when they oppose it, it is time for the country to look well to its interests.

The abuse of the opposition is really amusing, and if they would take time to consider their past conduct, they might perhaps be lead to be at least consistent in ther political course.

BEN WADE.

The assertion of Ben Wade, that Greeley's election would be a Democratic triumph and a Democratic administration, is in keeping with all the other assertions which emanate from him and his party friends.

If Horace Greeley is elected President it will be only the the triumph of right over wrong, of official integrity over corruption. Greeley will be the President of the whole country, and his administration will add to the lustre of the American name wherever it is known.

Wade & Co. hold up the great bug bear of the Democracy in order to frighten the timid, but such political trickery will not serve them in their hour of need. The die is cast, corruption has had its day in America, the great principles of free government are about to triumph and we hail its coming with joy and gladness.

CORRUPT.

In addition to all the corrupt practices of Grant since he has been President of the United States, a letter from George E. Spencer, carpet-bag Senator from Alabama, exposes another. Spencer is a strong friend of the President, "loya" to his interests, and has enjoyed his confidence to a very great extent.

The correspondence above alluded to is in regard to the Mobile Custom House. The efforts of Spencer were directed to depriving Warner of the Collectorship, to which position he had received the appointment, and to appointing his own tools to fill it, in which attempt he was successful." In his letter to Grant, Spencer says: My absence in Alabama, whither I had gone to harmonize our party in your interest, had been taken advantage of to procure a rescision of our agreement and understanding. I performed each and every specific act of our compact in honor and in good faith."

This appears to have been an agreement, then, but Grant had not fulfilled his part of the compact. The nature of the agreement is further made known by another passage in his letter. "If this and other essentials be permitted, I unhesitatingly pledge myself to redeem the State, and place it under your control in 1872, * * * and to achieve a Republican triumph for your benefit."

Spencer further suggested the following to the President: "let him (Warner) be tendered the mission to Venezuela or the Governorship of New Mexico." This suggestion was acted upon, but Warner declined.

What do the American people think of having the offices of the government bartered away for the support of a corrupt man in office? This is only one of the many instances of his acts of corruption, the whole history of his administration is a long array of such acts, every page of it is blackened by crime. And yet he asks to be again elevated to this high position.

The people should blush for the gross corruptions of President Grant's administration.

TIRED.

The people of the United States, and more especially of the South, where its power has been felt, are tired of the rule of the sword and of the attempts to make the civil power subservient to the military. General Grant was nominated as the Republican candidate for the Presidency in '68, on account of his military record, and was elected. He has disappointed his own party by repeated evidences of his unfitness for the position, and brought up as he been, as a military man, he cannot draw the distinction between the two.

Grant's subversion of the principles of the Constitution in the South and the power of the sword which he exercised, must place him in an unenviable light in the history of the country.

Patiently we of the South have waited for what was promised us when President Grant entered upon his term of office, but that peace has not been granted; us instead of proving a blessing, as his followers stated it would be, it has proven a curse. We are tired of the sword, we desire quiet and peace, but we do not expect it from Ulysses S. Grant. There must be a change of administrations before the blessings of a constitutional government will be again felt in America. Grant is not capable of benefitting the country even if he felt disposed, and we trust we shall no longer be subjected to the necessity of having him as our President. Take the sword from over our heads and give us the blessings of peace. This is what we need, all we ask for.

HON. Z. B. VANCE.

We give place to the following letter from ex-Governor Vance, giving his reasons for not replying to letters of invitation during the late campaign:

CHARLOTTE, N. C., August 10, 1872.

Editors News:

During the late canvass I received a great number of letters from various parts of the State, inviting me to deliver speeches in the localities of the writers, and on other business connected with the campaign. These letters reached me in such ways and at such times as rendered it impossible for me to answer duly. I, therefore, desire in this way to apologize to the writers for not replying to them, and to return my thanks as well to them as to those they represented, for these many expressions of confidence and good will.

Respectfully yours,
Z. B. VANCE.

CORRECTION.

In our last western edition, J. Turner Morehead, Senator from Rockingham, was classed as a Republican. The error was discovered and corrected before the whole issue had been printed. Silas Webb, of Carteret, is also erroneously put down as a Republican, which is a mistake.

We gladly make this correction, for in these gentlemen the cause of democracy has ever received unwavering support. We regret the accident and trust no such may occur again.

WORTH READING.

The admirable letter of Hon. J. S. Black, in this issue, is well worthy the attention of our readers. It is able and well written, and we ask that it be not passed by unread.

THE WELDON FAIR.

The third annual Fair of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Association will be held this year on the 29th, 30th, 31st of October, and the 1st of November. The premium list this year surpasses any former list, and will be found to offer excellent inducements to exhibitors. The grounds and buildings are to be improved and added to, and we doubt not but that the success of the fair this year will equal if not exceed the former efforts of the Society.

EX-PRESIDENT JOHNSON.

A day or two since ex-President Johnson made a speech in Knoxville, Tenn., in which he gave his views on the political situation.

In the course of his remarks he showed how the government was drifting from the Constitution and had become the plaything of an irresponsible Congress.

The speech of the ex-President should commend itself to our readers; it breathes the spirit of true patriotism.

Judge Black's Letter on the Situation.

MY DEAR SIR—I promised the gentleman who delivered your letter that I would answer it fully and as soon as I could consistently with other engagements. I am fulfilling that promise. If I take more time and space than might be expected, you will please to remember that I and a great many other Democrats are in a position which requires something more than a mere definition. We cannot avoid misconstruction without furnishing a rather full explanation.

I admit that the next President must be Grant or Greeley. The circumstances of the political situation limit our choice to these two men as strictly as if nobody else were legally eligible. We must weigh them against one another, and, like practical men, decide the case before us in favor of the best. Even if we find no good in either of them, we must take that one who shall appear to be least bad.

It is undeniable that the leading measures of this Administration are not only unconstitutional, but anti-constitutional, showing not merely a contemptuous indifference to constitutional obligations, but a settled hostility to those rights of the States and those liberties of the people which the organic law was made to secure. The President's appointment of officers and his general exercise of public authority, under the influence of men who paid him large sums of money, are scandalous outrages, and the effort to defend them has combined with other like causes to extinguish among his subordinates all respect for those rules of morality which used to be held sacred. When we consider what these men have done in the North, and add to it the large-handed robberies perpetrated in the South by the retainers of the President, with his direct aid and assistance, we are compelled to acknowledge that no other government now in the world is administered so entirely for personal and partisan purposes, or in such complete disgard for the rights and interests of the general public. This demoralization is not confined to the Executive branch; the tide of corruption rolls in upon the Legislature, and in some places it has risen high enough to touch the feet of the judiciary. Even the rank and file of the President's party have become debauched, let us hope not altogether, but certainly in a fearful degree. Acts which in former times a hardened criminal would hesitate to whisper in the ear of his accomplice can now be openly advocated by a political leader not only with safety but with a tolerable chance of being sustained by a sort of public opinion. That love of liberty and justice which used to pervade the whole community now "reneges all temper," and yields without resistance to the unprincipled demagogues who would enthrone fraud.

"Make the hoar leprosy adored; place thieves.
And give them title knee and approbation.
With senators on the bench."

If General Grant had been equal in mind and heart to the exigencies of the times, he could easily have made himself a great public benefactor. He might have purified official and political morals by simply setting the example in his own person of a clean-handed devotion to duty. His own obedience to the laws would have restored them to universal supremacy. All the objects of the Constitution as recited in the preamble would have been accomplished but for the obstructions with which he himself impeded them. Unfortunately, the interests of certain rings were in conflict with the interests of the country, and they, by large presents, seduced him into their service. The public contracted to give him the salary which his predecessors had been content with; the rings offered him more; he accepted their bounty, fell over to them, and took the Government into his hands as "a Black Republican job."

Now, as to Greeley. It cannot be pretended that his political life is very symmetrical. He was in the ranks of the Radical Abolitionists for a good many years. That is bad, for such associations would have a natural tendency to debase him. But we must not forget that, though he was with them, he was not always of them. He refused to be a partaker in their worst iniquities; he had none of their diabolical hatred for the Constitution; he did not lend his lips to their ribald blasphemies, and his feet were never swift in running to shed innocent blood. Before the great conflict began, his opposition to the designs of the Abolitionists against the Federal and State Governments impelled him to the opposite heresy of the secessionists. Like the Roman father who killed his daughter to save her from a worse fate, he chose to destroy the Government rather than see it dishonored and violated by lawless force. When the war was flagrant, he provoked the extremest rage of his associates by exerting himself for a peace which would have left all the people in possession of their constitutional liberties. After the close of the contest, he was the advocate of regular and legal as well as honest government for all parts of the country. I have good authority for saying that he never gave his approval to any form of kidnapping, or murder by military commission. In short, although he did join the Abolitionists in their "devil's dance," he never learned to keep step with his partners, and we all know that when he could not stop it, he left it and denounced it with becoming indignation.

On another point he ought to have credit. The friends of religious freedom owe him an old debt of gratitude for the zeal and ability with which he resisted the church-burners when banded together in the secret lodges of the Know-Nothing order. It is but reasonable to believe that his opposition saved the country from the great danger it was once in of being subjugated by that infamous organization.

He has often been accused of complicity in cheats of one kind or another, but in every case he has triumphantly refuted the charges. For this and for other reasons I conclude that his personal integrity is without a stain.

He has many times spoken of the Democratic party and its most honored members in harsh and abusive terms. These are faults of manner and temper which, when mended, are always pardoned. We will not permit our judgment to be disturbed by considerations so trifling as this.

I have looked into his past history only to ascertain what he is now and what he is likely to be in the future. I am bound to care nothing for his "antecedents," except as they furnish the means of estimating his character. I think I have found out with reasonable certainty how far we may confide in him. I devoutly believe that, if chosen President, he will keep his oath, preserve the Constitution inviolate, execute the laws faithfully, restore the States to their rightful autonomy, protect individual liberty by jury trial and habeas corpus, put the military in proper subordination to the civil authority, use neither force nor fraud to carry elections, keep his hands clean from corrupting gifts, set his face like a flint against all manner of financial dishonesty, purify the administration of justice as much as in him lies, maintain the public credit by a prompt discharge of all just obligations, economize the revenue and lighten taxation, give to capital the right which belongs to it, and at the same time see that labor is not robbed of its earnings. He will certainly hold his power of appointment as a public trust, and not as a part of his personal possession to be used for the support of his family or to encourage the private liberality of his friends. He will, so far as he can without transgressing the limits of his legal authority, relieve the Southern States from the gangs that are now preying upon their vitals in open partnership with the present Administration.

I think he will do all this; and my faith is founded on the testimony of his friends and enemies, on the known facts of his history, and on the moral influence which the Democracy will necessarily exert upon his conduct. The errors of his past life were caused by certain evil communications from which he has clean escaped. He heads a great revolt against wickedness in high places, and I do not believe he will go back upon us and be guilty of the said wickedness himself.

The contrast between the two candidates being so very strong, no fair-minded Democrat can doubt what he ought to do. Yet the reluctance which many of us feel to vote for either of them is hard to overcome. I did, and do, most heartily sympathize with that class which recived Mr. Greeley's nomination in much sorrow. I am sure this feeling proceeded from no unworthy passion or prejudice, but was the natural result of sober thought on the condition of the country and the fitness of things pertaining thereto.

In our view the controversy between the parties was not all about men, and not wholly on questions of mere administration. The Liberal Republicans and some Democrats think that we owe all our suffering to the corruption or incapacity of General Grant and the rings that surround him. But the prime cause lies further back and deeper down in wrongs for which the triumph of Mr. Greeley with all his reforms offers no immediate atonement and only a partial remedy.

In England, after every civil commotion, the victorious party vented its rage and gratified its rapacity by passing bills of attainder and bills of pains and penalties against their fallen and helpless opponents. The best and greatest men of their respective ages were the victims of these legislative decrees. In all the most notable cases subsequent Parliaments acknowledged the wrong, reversed the attainders, and made what reparation they could. Our fathers determined that no such thing should ever be done here, and so they put their solemn interdict into plain words, and made it a part of the fundamental law that neither Congress nor any State Legislature should ever pass a bill of attainder.

The reconstruction acts of 1867 were a bill of attainder more deliberately cruel, and with pains and penalties more compendiously unjust, than any British bill that ever was passed. But its authors were conscious that it could not stand, and they must replace it with something else, for sooner or later the courts would be sure to pronounce it void. The object being to put the southern people under the dominion of greedy adventurers from the North with unlimited license to oppress and plunder them, the officers of the army were not very good agents in such a nefarious business. The negroes would be instruments of tyranny much more easily managed. But an act of Congress disfranchising the white people for offences real or imputed, and handing over their State governments to negroes to be run by them in the interests of carpet-baggers, would be merely another bill of attainder, or rather a modification of the first one, making it much worse, but equally within the reach of judicial correction. In this strait they resorted to the expedient of converting the Constitution itself into a bill of attainder.

The fourteenth and fifteenth amendments were frauds upon the spirit and and letter of the instruments, inasmuch as they effected the worst outrage which it was made to prevent. They were carried against the known will of nearly every State in the Union, by shameless deception in the North and by brutal violence in the South. "May this be washed in Lethe and forgotten?" Certainly not, as long as any portion of our people are compelled to bear the intolerable burden of the yoke thus fastened upon them. I need not say how much they have suffered already, nor try to conjecture how much they will be called to endure hereafter; but it is certain that any ordinary despotism would have been a visitation of mercy in comparison. When we reflect upon the number and rapacity of the thieves that have been upheld in their pillage by means of the negro governments, we cannot help but regret the non-adoption of Mr. Steven's proposition, atrocious as it was, for universal confiscation. The pernicious consequences of this rule are felt in the general, as well as the local, governments. The legislation of Congress is largely controlled by fit representatives of the carpetbag interest, and the worst acts of the Executive administration are done to please the power which corrals the negroes at the meeting-places of the leagues, and drives them thence to the polls.

Mr. Greeley's election will not do all that we could wish to free us from these evils; it will not even be a popular condemnations of the base means by which they were inflicted upon us; but it will begin their process of gradual extinction. It will give the white people a reasonable hope that the heritable qualities of their fathers' blood may some day be restored. In the mean time, if it does not reverse the attainder, it will at least insure a merciful exception of it. Democrats who disliked Mr. Greeley's nomination have reflected well, and I think will support him with almost perfect unanimity. The thought that a victory will not give us everything at once may diminish in some degree "the rapture of the strife," but it will not impair the efficiency of their support, for they are impelled to their utmost exertions by a profound conviction that nothing but his election will save the country from a long period of misgovernment and perhaps the total destruction of our free institutions.

I am with great respect, yours, &c.,
J. S. BLACK.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A PERILOUS SEASON.—Glorious and delightful as the Summer weather is, its torrid heat is a severe trial to the vital powers. Even the strongest are sometimes prostrated by its effect. The common phrase applied to this condition of the body is "general debility." Now, general debility arises from, and includes a variety of ailments. The liver is more or less affected, the bowels are either constipated or too much relaxed, the stomach but half performs the work of digestion, the appetite is poor, and the spirits depressed. This is what is called general debility. It is a general disarrangement of all the physical functions, and requires as a remedy a medicine that will regulate them all. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted to this purpose. Its general operation is not confined to a single organ. If the liver is affected, it restores its tone; if the stomach is torpid, it regenerates it; if the nerves are tremulous and weak, it braces and reinforces them; if the mind, which ever sympathizes with the body, is gloomy and despondent, it relieves the difficulty, and soon brings the whole mechanism of the body into harmony with the laws of health. There is no civilized nation in the Western Hemisphere in which the utility of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a tonic, corrective and anti-billious medicine, is not known and appreciated. Throughout the Tropics it is considered, both by the people and the profession, the standard specific. While it is a medicine for all seasons and climates, it is especially suited to the complaints generated by the weather, being the purest and best vegetable stimulant in the world.
Beware of the Bitters made of acid and dangerous materials, which unscrupulous parties are endeavoring to foist upon the people. Their name is legion, and the public has no guarantee that they are not poisonous. Adhere to the tried remedy, Hostetter's Bitters, sold only in glass, and never in kegs and barrels.

THE GREAT HAIR PRODUCER.—Hair Oils, Pomatums and Pomades have had their day. They belong to the musty past. Nobody that understands the chemistry of the hair and the philosophy of its growth thinks of using them. Instead of clogging the pores of the scalp with thick unguents, and thus obstructing the insensible perspiration which is essential to the health of the fibres, we now tone the surface of the head with an invigorating application which penetrates to the roots of the hair and stimulates them in the same way that the fertilizing agents spread over the meadows stimulate the grass roots and cause the blades to spring up in myriads, coating the earth with verdure. The invigorant best adapted to this purpose is LYON'S KATHAIRON. It may well be called the fertilizer of the head. To the barren scalp it communicates vegetative power. If the hair is dropping out or becoming dry and withered, it arrests the process of dilapidation or blight. The hair thickens and becomes glossy and flexible under its genial operation, and as a dressing it is unapproached by any preparation that has yet been laid on the toilet of Fashion.
☞ If you desire rosey cheeks and a complexion fair and free from Pimples and Blotches, purify your blood by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It has no equal for this purpose.

UNPRECEDENTED SUCCESS.—Within the past year 200,000 boxes of DR. TUTT'S VEGETABLE LIVER PILLS have been sold and not a single instance is known where they have failed to give satisfaction. If you would enjoy life, have a fine appetite and robust health, use these Pills.

Dr. W. H. Tutt:

AUGUSTA, November, 1868.

It affords me much pleasure to testify to the great value of your Liver Pills. They are all they are represented to be. In my opinion, there are no Pills so well adapted to the southern climate as they are.
Yours truly,
JOS. BRUMMEL, late of Richmond, Va.

The Barbers Prefer Dr. Tutt's Hair Dye.

A WHOLE PEOPLE'S OPINION.—When a nation of forty millions accepts and endorses as a STANDARD RESTORATIVE an article that it has had the fullest opportunities of testing during a period of twelve years, who can be so absurdly incredulous as to doubt the excellence of the preparation? PLANTATION BITTERS has passed through this ordeal and is now the most popular proprietary medicine on this continent. It would be difficult to find an adult of either sex between the Atlantic and the Pacific or between the northeast corner of Maine and the Gulf of Mexico who does not know, either from personal experience or observation, that this renowned vegetable remedy is the purest tonic and stomachic and the finest alterative and regulating medicine at present before the world. As a preventive of, and cure for diseases generated by malaria, and as a specific for dyspepsia, rheumatism and all nervous and bilious affections, it is admitted to be fairly pronounced the Favorite Household Tonic and Alterative of the Western Hemisphere.

ASTHMA.—Jonas Whitcomb's remedy. Prepared from a German recipe obtained by the late Jonas Whitcomb, in Europe. It alleviated this disorder in his case when all other appliances of medical skill had been abandoned. Joseph Burnett & Co., Boston. For sale by all Druggists.

SUBSTITUTES IN THE DENTAL RANKS are not desirable; therefore, keep the natural teeth sound and pure with that wholesome vegetable elixir, Sozodont. Do this, and they will last as long as the breath lasts and the breath itself will never be tainted.

TO OWNERS OF HORSES AND CATTLE.—Tobias' Derby Condition Powders are warranted superior to any others, or no pay, for the cure of Distemper, Worms, Bots, Coughs, Hyde Bound, Cold, &c., in Horses, and Colds, Coughs, Loss of Milk, Black Tongue, Horn Distemper, &c., in Cattle. Price 25 cents. Depot, 10 Park Place, New York.

PHYSIOLOGISTS SAY THAT OUR BODIES are renewed once in seven years. The material of which they are reconstructed is the blood, and unless it be fully charged with the elements of vitality, the strength and health of the system decline. Of all blood depurents, Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters is the safest and most infallible. There is no disease, arising from depravation of the blood, which it will not speedily cure.

FOR DYSPEPSIA, indigestion, depression of spirits and general debility in their various forms; also, as a preventive against Fever and Ague, and other intermittent fevers, the Ferro-Phosphorated Elixir of Calisaya, made by Caswell, Hazard & Co., New York, and sold by all Druggists, is the best tonic, and as a tonic for patients recovering from fever or other sickness has no equal.

THURSTON'S IVORY PEARL TOOTH POWDER.—The best article known for cleansing and preserving the teeth and gums. Sold by all druggists. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. F. C. Wells & Co., New York.

CHRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE stands unrivalled in the world. No lady or gentleman of discrimination uses any other. It is the most perfect, reliable and effective Hair Dye in the world. Manufactory, 68 Maiden Lane, New York.

CARBOLIC SALVE, recommended by Physicians, as the great Healing compound. Price 25 cents per box. John F. Henry, sole Proprietor, 8 College Place, New York.

RISLEY'S BUCHU is a reliable Diuretic and Tonic for all derangements of the urinary and genital organs. The genuine, as formerly sold by Haviland, Harral & Risley and their branches, is now prepared by H. W. Risley, the originator and Proprietor, and the trade supplied by his successors, Morgan & Risley, New York.

SVAPNIA, or opium purified, the most perfect anodyne in the world, made by process of Dr. I. M. Bigelow, Detroit Medical College. Is always uniform in strength, which is rarely the case in other preparations of Opium.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL, has a world-wide reputation as the surest and best illuminating oil. Over two million gallons have been sold for the past two years, from which no accidents of any description have occurred. Send for circular. Oil House of Charles Pratt, established 1770, New York.

WE HAVE FREQUENTLY HEARD mothers say they would not be without Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, from the birth of the child until it has finished with the teething siege, under any consideration whatever.

THE SECRET OF BEAUTY.—What is it no longer asked, for the world of fashion and all the ladies know that it is produced by using a delightful and harmless toilet preparation known as G. W. Laird's "Bloom of Youth." Its beautifying effects are truly wonderful. Depot, 5 Gold Street, New York.

☞ KOSKOO.—This celebrated Medicine has attained a high reputation, as a reliable remedy for Purifying the Blood, Restoring the Liver and Kidneys to a healthy action and "Toning up" the Nervous System. Its numerous and remarkable cures of the worst forms of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, Liver Complaint, Kidney Disease, Eruptions of the Skin, Nervous Prostration, &c., has caused it to become a standard remedy. It is now prescribed by physicians, and recommended by our best citizens. mhl-1om

SIMON BROWN, Thos. Franks, Henry Holloway and Louis Miller, of Wilmington, have been bound over to the next term of the United States Court for a violation of the 5th section of the Enforcement act.

THE Wilmington Journal of the 10th inst., says: An old colored man from Long Creek, yesterday excited to lawlessness an idle and, vicious crowd of colored Grant supporters by displaying a Greeley badge upon his person. While in the vicinity of the "rock spring," at the foot of Chesnut street, the crowd of intimidators who had gathered around him gave unmistakable evidences of a determination to do him violence. Policeman E. R. Wilson appeared upon the scene and used his utmost to disperse the crowd and afford protection to the negro, who had been arrested for no other reason than that he wore a Greeley badge. The crowd was finally dispersed and the object of their antipathy marched off under protection. During the disturbance, however, the policeman attempted to make the arrest of one or two of the principal agitators; but in this he was resisted, and the culprits succeeded in eluding him in the crowd, through whose sympathies they escaped. The policeman called upon many present to assist him, but his assistance was obstinately withheld. We understand that he has the names of two of the ringleaders in this affair and will procure warrants for their arrest.

A STORY WORTH REPEATING.—Judge Davis, of Illinois, is a rich man. The public may not know how he became wealthy. About thirty years ago, when he was a practising lawyer in the West, he was employed by a Connecticut man to collect $800. Davis went to the place where the debtor lived, and found him to be rich in landed possessions, but without a spare dollar in money. He finally settled the bill by giving a deed for a tract of land—a flat, moist, and undesirable piece of land in appearance, lying close by a sheet of water, and consisting, perhaps, of sixty acres. Davis subsequently met his Connecticut client in St. Louis, when the latter (who seemed not to have the usual Connecticut shrewdness) fell to and gave him a regular 'blowing up" for taking the land rather than insisting on having the $800 in cash. He did not want any of your Western land, and he told Davis that having received it in payment of the debt, he had better keep it himself and pay the money out of his own pocket. To this Davis agreed. Stepping into a friend's office he borrowed $800, took the Connecticut man's receipt for the land, and held it for a rise. That land forms part of one of the suburbs of Chicago. Judge Davis has sold two or three hundred thousand dollars' worth of it, and has nearly a million dollars' worth left.—Hartford (Conn.) Times.

THE NEW RIVER VALLEY.—The Bristol News states that the people of the New River valley have the prospect both a railroad and steam navigation. General G. C. Wharton has notified the New River Company that if the counties between Central depot and the mouth of the Greenbrier will take one-third of the stock, there are responsible parties who will at once take the remaining two-thirds. We presume [illegible] would build this connecting link between the lines of General Malone and Colonel Huntington, and the counties of Montgomery, Pulaski, Giles, Monroe, and Summers could easily take $50,00 each, the sum required.—Lynchburg Virginian.

We are authorized to say explicitly, since the question has been raised, that Judge Davis intends to vote for Mr. Greeley, and never proposed to vote for General Grant. If there was no better reason for such a determination, the fact that he himself was a candidate before the Cincinnati Convention imposes an honorable obligation to support its nominee, which he would be the last man not to recognize.—Washington Patriot.

Mr. Sumner is preparing a reply to William Lloyd Garrison's late letter. He will enter at some length into a history of the anti-slavery movement, and will disprove many of Garrison's charges of his tardiness to enter the contest by elaborate quotations from his own speeches.

The specie in the Bank of France increased twenty-two millions of francs during the past week. The new loan was quoted at ⅛ premium in Paris, yesterday.

An ingenious New Haven man has invented a machine to be worked by the rise and fall of the tide, which he estimates at 7,000 horse power.

FOR SALE.

THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE FOR SALE.

By virtue of a judgment rendered at Spring Term, 1872, of the Superior Court of Wake County, in the action entitled William R. Pool, Executor of Edward Yarborough, dec'd, vs. Hannah H. Yarborough and others, the heirs and devisees of the said descendant, I will on expose to public sale, on the premises, the valuable property known as the Yarborough Hotel.

The 31st Day of August Next,

This property is situated on the Eastern side of Fayetteville Street, in the city of Raleigh, and embraces about one acre of ground—it is one of the most central points in the city, being not more than four hundred yards distant from the Depots of the Raleigh & Gaston, the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line, and the North Carolina Railroads within one hundred yards of the proposed Masonic Temple; the same distance from the Post-office and Federal Court House; on the opposite side of the street from the Wake County Court House, and within five minutes walk of the Capitol.

The hotel building is three stories high and contains forty-seven guest chambers, a dining room, two parlors, a reception room, office and three family rooms. The rooms are commodious and well ventilated; the passages are broad and spacious; the dining room, parlors and office are large, well lighted and comfortable, both in summer and winter.

All the buildings on the premises are in excellent order, and afford every convenience to hotel keeping.

The terms are as follows: One-fourth of the purchase money in cash; the residue in three equal instalments, bearing interest, at six, twelve and eighteen months from the day of sale; the first of the credit instalments to be secured by bond with at least one good surety, title withheld until payment of the purchase money; and so long as any part of the purchase money remains unpaid, the purchaser to insure the buildings on said lot, in a sum equal to such unpaid balance, the loss, if any, to be applied to the payment of said purchase money; and should the purchaser fail so to insure the said buildings, I shall have the power to effect such insurance and the money so expended by me to be deemed a part of the purchase money, bearing interest from date of expenditure, and be payable at the same time with the instalment of purchase money next thereafter falling due.

WILLIAM R. POOL,
Ex. of Edward Yarborough, dec'd.

VALUABLE LAND FOR SALE

IN THE

COUNTY OF WARREN.

I offer for sale, five hundred and two (502) acres of land, situated in the county of Warren, on Shoco Creek, adjoining the Sulphur Springs. Tract of Col. J. H. Lacy, on both sides of the Turnpike road, leading from the Sulphur Springs to the flourishing Town of Ridgeway, on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, and nine miles from the latter place. There is an Overseer's house, three cabins, corn-crib and stables on the premises. About one-fourth (¼) of the land is virgin growth of oak, hickory, &c., and all is second growth pine. The soil is sandy, loam and chocolate—surface undulating—well watered, and about 80 acres of rich bottom land. It yields excellent crops of corn, tobacco, wheat, oats, clover, &c. This is one of the best tracts of land in this section, and will be sold on reasonable terms.

Dr. George Fields, who resides near the land, will take pleasure in showing it to persons wishing to examine it, and is authorized to negotiate for its sale.

"BE THOU OF GOOD CHEER."

Bear stoutly on! thou child of sorrow,
Repine not o'er thy lot;
Hope sweetly for a better morrow,
When the past will be forgot.

Thou say'st there is no pleasure
In this heartless world below,
That sorrow without measure,
Has been thy fate to know.

Oh! is't not joy to think upon
The pleasant Times long past,
As o'er thy mind they float along
All dreamily and fast?

Like the soft passing summer breeze
Which cools the burning cheek,
May they not o'en thy mood appease,
Or dost thou further seek?

Go to the hovel of the poor,
Alleviate distress;
Bid their hard trials come no more;
Grant to their wrongs redress.

Thus shalt thou find a sweet relief
From troubles of thine own,
And bury thine own secret grief,
Where thou sneh joy hast sown.

Bear on, thine, and repine not
O'er the lot thy God hath given;
Let all thy sorrows be forgot;
There's such a place as Heaven.

HIGH GRADE

Super-Phosphate of Lime.

Composed entirely of the Charleston Bone Phosphate, Sulphuric Acid and Ammonia. Warranted to analyse seven per cent. of Soluble Phosphoric Acid and one per cent. of Ammonia.

We are prepared to offer this reliable and superior Super-phosphate—after a test of more than five years in the cotton growing States of South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama, where its record is second to none other manufactured—not excepting Peruvian Guano and Pure Ground Bone, (having a better record for cotton than these)—to Planters and Dealers—in any quantity—at any railroad depot in the State, or at the factory, upon satisfactory terms.

Price per ton, delivered at any station on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad east of Henderson, or on the Wilmington and Weldon road north of Rocky Mount, for $50 cash.

Put up in bags—very stout—for immediate use—or in good barrels—which we recommend as better, owing to the high grade of the article as ordered. Circulars and testimonials furnished upon application. All orders and communications addressed to

TO LAND OWNERS

Over fifty families who come to North Carolina through my Agency within the last eighteen months have bought Farms, Timber and Mineral Lands. A much larger number have visited this State, many of whom will return and settle. Others are arriving every week. I have many inquiries for IMPROVED FARMS of all sizes near Railroads, I have at present several special inquiries for LARGE TRACTS OF FINE LAND near Railroad or navigable river for lumbering; also for WHITE OAK TIMBER. Owners of such farming and timber lands who wish to sell should address me without delay.
